Student Roster
University of Science-Vietnam National University Ho Chi Minh City
Once the enrollments are confirmed, University of Science-Vietnam National University Ho Chi Minh City staff will compile a student roster in an Microsoft-Excel spreadsheet. The roster headings are:

- class/year
- major
- expected graduation date
- cohort designation

The cohort designation consists of the four-letter university code followed by the class year (Example: HCMC2011A). The “class year” is defined as the first year in which the students are enrolled into the program. This will identify the group of students throughout the program.

The students’ names are listed on the roster alphabetically, first by the “family” name (last name) and, second by the “given” name (first name). The student’s name must identify with valid documentation or efficacious certificates. Students are numbered in the left column, giving the total for the class at the bottom. Student information is included in the following columns:

- Family Name
- Middle Name
- Given Name
- Gender
- Date of Birth

When entering the date of birth, please spell out the month or use the three-letter abbreviation for the month (Example: 1-Jan-06 or January 1, 2006). This will avoid confusion between month and day.

The Management Degree program through Keuka College is designed to provide an opportunity for students to acquire management skills with a global perspective. An American and international faculty instructs students in a broad curriculum designed to provide the management skills needed for professional success. The rapid economic and social changes taking place in today’s marketplace require management students to think globally.

The Management curriculum provides a broad foundation that integrates the various management skills required in today’s business environment. Students learn to approach coursework from a holistic perspective to gain the maximum benefit. Students complete coursework taught by University of Science-Vietnam National University Ho Chi Minh City faculty to provide the necessary foundation for the Keuka Program. Mastery of spoken and written English is critical to student success in the program. Students start with FYE 101 First Year Experience and explore career management issues and strategies. Students build knowledge and professional competencies through coursework in general management, human resource management, leadership, marketing, accounting, finance, and communication. Students tie these areas together in the capstone course, Strategic Management. The Field Period course near the end of the program helps students transition to the real world through a variety of personal and professional development exercises and activities.

Upon completion of the Keuka program, students will be able to approach the complexity of management, decision-making and problem solving in their organizations effectively. The skill set to accomplish this draws from the many disciplines covered in the program. The key to success will be successful integration of these many disciplines using a holistic approach to organizational management.

Transfer to Keuka College Campus, New York

Students in good academic standing may apply to transfer to the main Keuka College campus in New York to complete part or all of their degree requirements for the BSM program. Students must apply to the main Keuka Campus at least one semester prior and be prepared to pay all tuition, fees, and room and board as required on the main Keuka Campus in New York. Students may apply for Financial Aid as appropriate. A limited number of scholarships for University of Science-Vietnam National University Ho Chi Minh City students may be available to assist transfer students. It is suggested that students plan to spend their junior or senior year at the main Keuka College New York campus. An academic plan must be completed as part of the transfer process by the Center for Global Education at the Keuka College campus.

Class Attendance Policy

The attendance of each class is important for students to successfully complete each course. A minimum attendance policy applies to all Keuka College courses. Individual instructors may impose more strict policies based on the course content. Students are expected to attend a minimum of 80% of scheduled course class time to avoid a grade reduction of one letter grade. A reduction of an additional letter grade will be imposed if students do not attend 30% or more of their scheduled course class sessions. Students missing 40% or more of scheduled course class sessions will fail the course.
Academic Records

FERPA Regulations

The Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a US regulation protecting the privacy of educational records. While these laws do not apply in Vietnam, Keuka College believes that it is good practice to protect all student information regardless of the international status. Therefore, the College does not disclose personally identifiable information from the educational record of a student without the prior written consent of the student. Student transcripts are only released under the College’s transcript request procedure, which requires a student’s signature. Under this policy, instructors are restricted from publicly posting grades using identifiable student information, such as the name or identification number.

Course Registration

Keuka courses are offered in sequence for each cohort/class based on the master teaching schedule. Students are batch registered for courses at the time of initial enrollment.

Withdrawal from a Course

Withdrawal from a course is only permitted in the event of a medical or family emergency after the first week of class. Students must complete a Course Withdrawal Form, obtain signatures from the University of Science-Vietnam National University Ho Chi Minh City Program Coordinator who will then submit the withdraw form to the Keuka College Registrar. A copy of the form can be found at the end of this section. In the event the student is unable to submit the withdrawal form, the University of Science-Vietnam National University Ho Chi Minh City Program Coordinator should notify the student’s instructors and the Keuka College Registrar’s Office on behalf of the student.

In such approved cases, instructors are permitted to give the student a “INC” on the grade roster. If the instructor deems that sufficient work has been completed (usually 75% or more of the total course work), the student may be permitted to complete any outstanding assignments upon returning to the university at the discretion and availability of the instructor. The instructor should submit a grade change form to give the student a grade. A maximum of 2 weeks from the end of the course is allowed to complete outstanding work or the grade of “INC” is converted to an “F”.

Students who withdraw by the end of the first week of class will be permitted to retake the course at no additional charge provide they paid for the course in full and no refund was granted. For withdraws after the first week of class, students must pay the course fee again in order to repeat the course despite any full or partial course fees paid. The policies for Repeating a Course and Delayed Graduation will also apply.
Grading Scale and Quality Points

Instructors base the student's grade on:

- Performance in the classroom, including free discussion, answering questions, engaging in classroom activity, etc.
- Attendance
- Achievement on homework and group exercises
- Classroom tests and final examination

Keuka College undergraduate grades are calculated using the following scale:

Students can receive a failing grade for poor performance, unsatisfactory attendance, incomplete assignments, absence from examinations, cheating, etc. Please note that Keuka College does not allow incomplete (“I”) grades, thus outstanding work not completed by the instructor's specified date or within two weeks after the course has ended will result in a grade of “F”.

The quality points listed in the grading scale above are used to calculate the student's Grade Point Average, commonly referred to as the GPA. The GPA measures a student's overall progress and is used to:

- determine a student's status in the program as outlined in the section on Guidelines for Satisfactory Progress.
- set a minimum graduation requirement discussed later under Degree Requirements and Graduation.

Along with the student's letter grade, the GPA is reported on the official Keuka College transcript. More information on the formula to calculate the GPA can be found later in the section on Keuka College Transcripts.
Student Grade Reports and Posting

Students who receive a deficient (D+, D, D-) or failing grade (F) should be given a detailed explanation from their course instructor. While the grades of “D+” and below are deficient, students need only repeat a course if they fail.

Keuka College will process the instructors’ final grades and release individual student grade reports to be disseminated to the students from University of Science-Vietnam National University Ho Chi Minh City.

As stated previously, Keuka College prohibits publicly posting grades using identifiable student information under FERPA regulation.

Grade Inquiries

Students will have a maximum of two weeks from the time their final grade is posted to question the grade. Students may approach their Keuka instructor directly if he/she is available on their campus or by email to inquire about their grade. However, if no response is given, a formal inquiry may be submitted to University of Science-Vietnam National University Ho Chi Minh City Program Coordinator along with sufficient evidence. The University of Science-Vietnam National University Ho Chi Minh City Program Coordinator’s Office will forward questions along with any evidence to the Registrar’s Office, who will then work with the instructor to confirm the final grade and return the outcome to University of Science-Vietnam National University Ho Chi Minh City.

Repeating a Course

Students are able to repeat courses to improve their academic standing in the program. The first course grade will appear on the student’s transcript, but is not computed in the grade point average (GPA) or Keuka College credit hours earned toward graduation after it has been repeated. Once repeated, the resulting grade becomes the final grade for this course. Please note that a student who fails the same course three times is not permitted to repeat the same course a fourth time and will thus be ineligible to graduate.

Repeated coursework may occur at any time during the student’s enrollment in the program or up to two years following the original expected graduation date. Courses can be repeated based on course availability in the teaching schedule and the number of students limited to the class. The student is also responsible for the course tuition and any additional administrative fees or accommodation charges imposed by the host university.
Guidelines for Satisfactory Progress

A student’s continued eligibility for graduation depends on making satisfactory academic progress. A student must achieve a minimum 2.0 cumulative grade point average and have no failed courses by the end of his/her program in order to earn a degree.

Determining Academic Status

Upon the completion of each Keuka College semester, the Keuka College Registrar’s office will examine each student’s transcript. Students whose cumulative grade point average (GPA) is below 2.00 will be placed on academic probation until such time as the student improves his or her GPA or is dismissed. Students with low GPAs or who have completed the majority of their coursework and not maintained a satisfactory GPA may be dismissed from the program.

Students who are on probation will have this status noted on their official transcript during the final semester of the program or during the semester in which the evaluation was completed (usually the last semester). Those students who fall within the probation criteria at the end of the program (10 courses) will be held for delayed graduation. These students must complete their outstanding requirements within two years from their original expected graduation date.

Each course in Keuka program builds upon the information learned in previous courses. Please note that students who enter the program in 2011 may be required to complete failed coursework before graduation or advancing to upper level courses at the discretion of Keuka College. While this could delay the student’s original expected graduation date, it will help to ensure the student’s ultimate success in future coursework.

For additional information, please refer to the policy on Repeating a Course.

Status Reports and Notification

The Keuka College Registrar’s Office will notify University of Science-Vietnam National University Ho Chi Minh City at the end of each semester of the students who have been placed on academic probation.

| Courses ending September - January/February .......... Fall (year) |
| Courses ending February/March - June ..................... Spring (year) |
| Courses ending July - August ................................ Summer (year) |

Each completed course will show the letter grade, credits hours attempted (HA), credits hours earned (HE), and grade points (GP). The student’s grade point average (GPA) and cumulative grade point average (Cum GPA) is calculated and the end of each semester according the grading scale shown previously using quality points:

B+ = 3.33 quality points \( \times \) 3 credit hours earned = 9.99 grade points
