Tuesday, 10 July 2012 14:04 - Last Updated Monday, 28 August 2017 11:07

The seminar “An Hour Of Becoming An International Student”, topic “International Business and Career Opportunities” is presented by ITEC – HCMUS with the intention of helping students interested in Business Management to have a sense of what is Experiential Learning and how international program is taught in Vietnam.

Students shall be guided by Dr. Keith Lasota (Keuka College, the USA) on skills and experience required to pursue international programs. This is also an introduction on Business Management program, a “hot” major in recent years.

Bachelor of Business Management program, joint program between HCMUS, Vietnam and Keuka College, the USA is highly considered because it is fully deployed in English with technical papers lectured by American teachers from Keuka College. Students shall receive an international degree when they graduate. They also have greater opportunity to study abroad in the USA.

ITEC warmly invites parents, students to the seminar “An Hour Of Becoming An International Student”
